

MODERN DAY SLAVERY ACT 2015

POLICY STATEMENT

Oakland Construction Ltd. are totally committed to preventing slavery and human trafficking in its business activities, and to ensuring that its supply chains are free from slavery and human trafficking. As part of the construction industry, the company recognises that it has a responsibility to take a robust approach to slavery and human trafficking.

The aim of the Company is to identify our responsibility by alerting staff to the risks, however small, in our business and in the wider supply chain. Staff are expected and encouraged to report concerns to management, where they are expected to act upon them. We have a multi-disciplined supply chain to support us through daily operation of our business. We are committed to ensuring that there is no modern-day slavery or human trafficking in our supply chains or in any part of our business.

Our Anti-slavery Policy Statement reflects our commitment to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business relationships and to implementing and enforcing effective systems and controls to ensure slavery and human trafficking is not taking place anywhere in our supply chains. This Policy takes into account, and supports, the policies, procedures and requirements documented in our Company Management System which has been developed to comply with the requirements of ISO 9001:2015, ISO 14001:2015 and ISO 45001:2018. The implementation and operation of this management system underlines our commitment to this policy statement.

Formal procedures concerning slavery and human trafficking have been established, including disciplinary procedures where they are breached. Additional procedures ensure that this policy is understood and communicated to all levels of the company, and that it is regularly reviewed by the Directors to ensure its continuing suitability and relevance to the company activities

The Company will achieve these aims by our initiative to identify and mitigate risk in the following ways (But not limited to): -

- More stringent vetting and investigation of our supply chain (contractors, sub-contractors, policies, contracts etc.).
- Continually audit & review our practices for checking all employees are paid at least the minimum wage and have the right to work;
- We encourage the reporting of concerns and the protection of whistle blowers.
- The company will not knowingly support or deal with any business involved in slavery or human trafficking.
- We have zero tolerance to slavery and human trafficking.

- We expect all those in our supply chain and contractors comply with our values.

To ensure a high level of understanding of the risks of modern slavery and human trafficking in our supply chains and our business, we provide training to relevant members of staff. All Directors have been briefed on the subject. We use a variety of methods to ensure the effectiveness of our processes to ensure that slavery and human trafficking is not taking place in any part of our business or supply chains:

- Completion of Audits by Directors
- Use of labour monitoring and payroll systems;
- Regular communication with our supply chain partners

This policy is in accordance with Section 54 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes our company slavery and human trafficking statement.

This policy applies to all those employed by Oakland Construction Ltd.
